AMSOIL has added a new supplemental partner in filtration. MANN-FILTER, with its U.S. headquarters in Portage, Mich., is the world's largest filter company and a worldwide leader in auto, light truck, heavy duty, motorcycle and off-road filtration products.

MANN-FILTER Oil Filters

Oil filters from MANN-FILTER purify oil of dirt and solid particles such as dust, abaded metal, carbon deposits and soot particles. The filter housing is pressure-resistant, protected against corrosion and features a long-life elastomer seal. They are low flow resistant for fast lubrication of the engine and come in three different shapes to adjust to different requirements: oil filter elements, spin-on oil filters and oil filters for use in transmission systems.

MANN-FILTER specializes in European vehicles and provides AMSOIL customers a greater breadth of products for vehicles like Audi, BMW, Mercedes, Volkswagen, Porsche, Volvo and Jaguar. They also build select filters for Ford, GM and Chrysler.

Weigel Funeral Home Earns
High Approval Rating by Families

Weigel Funeral Home of Swanton and Metamora, Ohio, has received a high approval rating from families in Swanton, Metamora, and surrounding communities. The survey results were recently published by the Order of the Golden Rule (OGR) in its Family Contact Summary Report, based on objective feedback from families served during the past year.

The Family Contact program was designed to obtain immediate and honest feedback from families that have recently utilized the services of participating members. Weigel Funeral Home has been participating in Family Contact since January of 2005.

"We try our very best to provide exemplary service to our bereaved families," said Travis Weigel, owner of Weigel Funeral Home. "By participating in Family Contact, we are able to learn, not just what we are doing right, but what we could be doing better. All of us at Weigel Funeral Home are proud of this report, which confirms our efforts to serve our families with care, dignity and compassion."

Among the categories in the survey, families reported overall satisfaction, price, and information provided during the arrangement conference. Weigel Funeral Home was rated Superior in overall satisfaction, price, and information provided ratings, respectively.

We are available Monday through Friday from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm, and of course 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by calling 419-644-3601 or 419-826-2631. Please take time to view our new website at www.weigelfuneralhomes.com
