

2006 Fulton County 4-H Caprine Queen and King

The OSU Extension Office would like to announce the 2006 Fulton County 4-H Caprine Queen and King. The 4-H Caprine Queen is Sarah Heilman. Sarah is the daughter of Brad and Pamela Heilman of Delta. She will be a senior at Evergreen High School this year. Sarah is a 3 year member of the Goats and "Udder" Things 4-H Club and has taken poultry, dog obedience, market lambs, animal science and goat projects.

The 2006 4-H Caprine King is Scott Lydon. Scott is the son of Thomas and Mary Lydon of Liberty Center. This year he will be a Junior at Liberty Center High School. Scott is a 10 year member of Noah's Ark 4-H Club and has served his club as a past treasurer and is currently the vice-president. Scott has taken various projects including goats and aerospace science. In the future, Scott plans to join the military.

Congratulations to both Sarah and Scott!

2006 Fulton County 4-H Lamb and Wool Queen

The OSU Extension Office would like to announce the 2006 4-H Lamb and Wool Queen. The Lamb and Wool Queen is Amanda Schaffner of Alvordton. Amanda is the daughter of Phil and Chris Schaffner. She is a sophomore at Hilltop High School. She is an eight year member of Country Club 4-H. Amanda is a past treasurer and secretary of her 4-H Club and is a past teen board member. She has shown lambs for seven years and has attended State Fair for two years with her lamb project. Outside of 4-H, Amanda is involved with basketball, cross country, cheerleading and is a member of Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church.

Congratulations Amanda!

Science Project Straw Towers

Aryiel Ziegler, weight on her tower.

Mrs. Barden's 8th grade Science classes were assigned the traditional task of building straw towers. Specific instructions are given to each student as to the maximum number straws are to be used, pins or paper clips are permitted for connecting the straws as well as other guidelines such as height of the tower. The purpose of the project is to erect a tower which will hold weight and meet other project guidelines. The winning tower the one whose height times its weight produces the highest score. The winner this year was Amy Szabo.

"Outstanding Middle School Huddle"

Evergreen Middle School was honored as the "Outstanding Middle School Huddle" at the NW Ohio FCA Spirit of Sports Dinner. The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is a nation-wide group that promotes good Christian values and character through athletics. Before the dinner, all the award winners were able to "meet and greet" as well as have their picture taken with Charlie Frye, quarterback of the Cleveland Browns. Charlie Frye was the keynote speaker for the dinner. The NW Ohio FCA covers 19 counties, with more than 70 schools involved. This is the 2nd year for the FCA group at the middle school, which meets once a month and averages a little over 100 students per meeting.

Evergreen Senior Wins VFW Scholarship

The Ladies Auxiliary of the VFW Post 7574 in Lyons, Ohio as well as the men of the VFW Post 7574 jointly offered a $1,000 Scholarship to an Evergreen Senior in the 2006 Class. Nineteen (19) Seniors assembled at the VFW Hall in March and took a test covering 100 items touching on Math, Science, History & Geography, Language Arts and Spelling.

James Sayers of Lyons, Ohio scored the highest out of the 19 candidates. At the Evergreen Awards Ceremony in May, the recipient of this VFW Scholarship was announced to the Senior Class.

Presenting the Scholarship at the high school were George Flack, VFW Post Commander, Marjorie Flack, Ladies Auxiliary Senior Vice President, and Carolyn Smith, Auxiliary Treasurer.

Nifty 4-H'ers

By: Lauren Keefer

The Nifty 4-H'ers held their 4th meeting on April 6. The advisors talked about upcoming clinics and the goal of becoming an Honor Club again this year. Demonstrations were given on icebreakers, the food pyramid and having turtles for pets. Easter cards were made for the residents of Bittersweet Farms as a service project.

Members participated in the annual community service trash pick-up on April 29th. A demonstration was given on gun safety by new members, Logan and Levi Griffith. Member taking animal projects watched a quality assurance video and everyone enjoyed a hot dog lunch afterwards. The next meeting will be on June 10, where the club will hold a car wash fund-raiser at the T-Mart in Metamora.

Casie Smith Receives Catholic War Veterans Post 306 Scholarship

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Catholic War Veterans Post 306, Assumption, Ohio is pleased to announce that the 2006 winner of their annual $500 Scholarship is Casie M. Smith.

Casie had the privilege of reading her Essay at the Memorial Day services in St. Mary's Cemetery at Assumption and also at the Amboy Cemetery services.

Have you noticed the work on the new Evergreen Community Room is underway? The Gleaner South Fairfield Arbor angled $700 to Evergreen Library director Jane Dominique with the proceeds from the Arbor's latest fun-raiser Tea to purchase new round tables and chairs for the community room which is scheduled to be completed by the end of July or mid August of 2006.

The Gleaner's 6th Annual "Join Hands Day" was a wonderful & successful bake sale fund-raiser with the help of our 4-H Goats & "Udder" Things partners. The proceeds benefitted the Noe family of Berkeley, Ohio whose house was destroyed by fire. It also helped two 4-H advisors with medical expenses from cancer treatment. We thank everyone who supported this project helping local people in our community - your generosity made all the difference.

Upcoming Gleaner S. Fairfield Arbor activities include: business meetings Monday, July 10 & August 7 at 4:30 pm at Evergreen Library. Join us for the two summer super cruise car shows in Wauseon on Tuesday, July 18 & August 15 with dinner at Winchester Restaurant at 5 pm in Delta. The Gleaner Ohio State Association Picnic is Sunday, July 22 at 12:30 pm in Findlay, Ohio at the Lighthouse on St. Rt. 224.

Please remember to bring your own table service and a generous dish or two to share. Arbor members will attend Adrian Crowell Theatre for the musical "Grease" on Sunday August 6 at 3 pm Potluck at Garlick's Pond July or August - TBA.

Happy 4th of July! Long may Old Glory wave. Have a safe holiday and summer.

South Fairfield contributed to the 90th Anniversary celebration for their 4th of July concert at Fremont's Hayes Presidential Home at Spiegel Grove.
