

South Fairfield Arbor "CSRA"

Rebecca Ott
South Fairfield Arbor Reporter

"Everything that is really GREAT and INSPIRING is created by individuals who LABOR in FREEDOM." Albert Einstein

Wishing everyone a safe and relaxing Labor Day Holiday.

The Gleaner South Fairfield Arbor recently completed their "Benevolent Project" were they made a contribution of a Stainless Steel Triple Sink/Drain Board to the new Metamora Park Shelter and helped do light clean-up in the shelter after construction was completed.

This year our arbor was pleased to participate in the Trot for a Track at its new location at the Evergreen High School and assist in helping fund T-Shirts for the Walkers/Runners

Involved. "The best and noblest lives are those which are set to high ideas." Rene Almeras.

Kudos to all for another fun-tastic and successful event at the Trot for a Track!!

South Fairfield Arbor is proud to announce its Youth and Adult "Community Service Recognition Award" recipients they are: Daniel Lemle (youth) and Charleen Adair. Our Arbor will hold an appreciation dinner at Winchester Restaurant at 6pm. On Thurs. Sept. 24, 2009 for Mrs. Adair and on Oct. 19, 2009 to honor Mr. Lemle. Congratulations to both of these outstanding volunteers. "There are glimpses of heaven in every act, or thought, or word that raises us above ourselves." Authur P. Stanley

Our Arbor continues to collect cancelled stamps for the Heifer Project. We recently contributed two more full business sized envelopes to the cause in the month of August. If you would like to help we have a collection jar for cancelled stamps at the Evergreen Library. Please be sure the stamps are not ripped and to leave at least 1/4 edge all the way around the stamp.

"Tea, to the English, is really a PICNIC INDOORS." Alice Walker

The "Celebrate Individuali-TEA Benefit" Tea plans are under way for Sat. Oct. 24, 2009 at 2pm at the Evergreen Community Room. The cost remains $15 due when you register at the Library before the Oct. 17 deadline. We will have handcrafted items and gift baskets for raffle and a 50/50 drawing, as well as, vintage jewelry for raffle. Also a special feature at our annual teas is the "Favorite Hat Contest" with prizes. Guests vote for the winning hat. Join us in sporting a "treasured topper" for a Tea-rrific time.

The South Fairfield Arbor donated "personal care items" to the Swanton Health Care Center in August.

Members of South Fairfield Arbor took a sunset boat ride on the "Sandpiper" with historian Fred Folger relating stories and sights along the Maumee River.

Upcoming Gleaner S. Fairfield Arbor events include: Business meetings on Mon. Sept. 14 and Thurs Oct. 8, 2009 at 4:30pm in the Evergreen Community Room. (Please note the Oct. Meeting date is a different than usual due to the Gleaner Convention. Guest speaker Fred Folger will present a slide program on Sept 21 and Oct. 12 at 7pm in the Evergreen Community Room. These programs are FREE and open to the public and if you love history you are sure to enjoy Fred's interesting stories.

School has begun drive carefully and watch for children crossing the streets.

ALL-OHIO YOUTH CHOIR

Nathan Hess, Son of Brian & Kelly Hess, Lyons, OH has been selected to sing with the 47th edition of the All-Ohio State Fair Youth Choir. Nathan will be one of the 200 high school singers from all points in Ohio who will sing with the Choir at the 12-day Ohio State Fair, July 29- August 9.

As a student at Evergreen High School, Nathan has participated in Music Man Jr., Guys and Dolls, My Favorite Year and most recently Seussical the Musical as The Cat in the Hat, under the direction of Kristen Dobish.

Founded in 1963 by Glenville D. Thomas, the Youth Choir has appeared in concert around Ohio and abroad, marched in a number of parades, and has sung for several gubernatorial inaugurations.

Since 1992, the All-Ohio Youth Choir has been led by Charles R. Snyder, Coshocton. Mr. Snyder is the director of music at The Presbyterian Church, Coshocton, and music director and conductor of the Coshocton Community Choir, a 100-voice auditioned ensemble he founded in 1971. He also conducts the Coshocton Children's Choir, a 60-voice regional choir for young singers in grades 4-8 that he organized in 1987. In 2002, he created the Coshocton Youth Chorale, a high-school ensemble that includes 58 singers from several counties.

After converging at the Ohio State Expo Center in Columbus on July 23rd, choir members will spend five days in rigorous rehearsals prior to the official opening of the 155th Ohio State Fair on Wednesday, July 29th. Each day of the Fair the Youth Choir will sing for some 60,000 fairgoers as they perform at 6-8 sites in the 360-acre Fairgrounds; more than 100 performances over the run of the Fair! On Saturday, August 9, the Choir will be joined by hundreds of alumni in a celebration of song.

The Youth Choir's 2009 show is entitled "The Road Home," a musical pilgrimage of hope and anticipation.
